PART I

Although we refer in this Report to companies in which we have acquired a convertible debt or an equity ownership interest as our “partner companies” and indicate that we have a “partnership” with these companies, we do not act as an agent or legal representative for any of our partner companies, we do not have the power or authority to legally bind any of our partner companies, and we do not have the types of liabilities in relation to our partner companies that a general partner of a partnership would have.

ITEM 1. Business

Overview

Internet Capital Group, Inc. (referred to in this Report as “ICG,” the “Company,” “we,” “our,” or “us”) was formed on March 4, 1996 and is headquartered in Wayne, Pennsylvania. Since our inception, we have focused on acquiring and building Internet software and services companies that improve the productivity and efficiency of their business customers. We call these companies our “partner companies.”

As of December 31, 2008 and the date of this Report, we hold ownership interests in fourteen companies that we consider our partner companies. Additionally, we hold marketable securities in other companies, which, as of December 31, 2008 and the date of this Report consist primarily of Blackboard, Inc. common stock (Nasdaq: BBBB) (“Blackboard”). The results of operations of our partner companies are reported within two segments: the “core” reporting segment and the “other holdings” reporting segment. The core reporting segment includes those partner companies in which ICG’s management takes a very active role in providing strategic direction and management assistance. We devote significant expertise and capital to maximizing the success of these core partner companies. The other holdings reporting segment includes partner companies over which, in general, we have less influence because they are public companies and/or we have a relatively small ownership stake in those partner companies. For information regarding the results of operations of our reporting segments, as well as their respective contributions to ICG’s consolidated results of operations, see “Item 7—Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” and “Item 8—Financial Statements and Supplementary Data,” including Note 8 to our Consolidated Financial Statements. Such information is incorporated herein by reference.

Over the past decade, businesses have increasingly looked to realize increased productivity and efficiency through Internet-based software and services and other services that streamline, automate or otherwise improve their business processes. Moreover, it is our view that businesses will rely increasingly on these solutions in times of both economic growth and economic decline. We believe that these factors create a compelling opportunity for companies that are able to deliver these solutions and services, thereby expanding their customers’ access to new and existing customers and suppliers, increasing their customers’ efficiency, reducing their customers’ costs and/or allowing their customers to focus on their core competencies and outsource their non-core, non-strategic processes. In some cases, this outsourcing will be to labor-based firms that provide deep expertise, and in some cases, this outsourcing will be to technology-intensive firms that provide platforms to automate functions.

We feel that the expertise we have developed in connection with our thirteen-year active involvement with Internet software and services companies allows us to identify companies that are positioned to succeed and to accelerate the growth of companies. We intend to continue to expand our network of partner companies and allocate our financial and human resources to partner companies that we believe have significant long-term value potential. In particular, we seek to acquire interests in companies offering solutions that:

- are delivered through a Web-enabled software platform (often characterized as a software as an on-demand software, software as a service (“SaaS”), or application service provider (“ASP”) model);
- automate complex workflow processes, with focus on the “white space” between companies;
- are comprehensive, meaning that they include software, content data and transaction capabilities (with content being a long-term differentiator);
- have the ability to generate recurring revenue streams and allow their providers to retain fixed costs;
- are delivered to clients through long-term relationships; and
- have the potential to evolve into ecosystems.

After we identify a potential partner company, we negotiate the acquisition of a stake in that company, typically seeking an interest as the principal controlling equity holder. We generally require representation on the partner company’s board of directors to ensure our ability to provide active guidance to the partner company. We place an extremely high value on the quality of a partner company’s management team and, accordingly, seek to structure acquisitions to permit the partner company’s management and key personnel to retain a meaningful equity stake in the company. During our negotiations with potential partner companies, we emphasize the value of our network and resources, which we believe give us a competitive advantage over other potential funding sources when we seek to acquire partner companies.

Our focus on the software and services markets and the knowledge base of our partner companies, our management and our Board of Directors give us valuable experience that we share with our partner companies. Once we acquire an interest in a partner company, we work to assume an active role in the development and growth of the company, providing both strategic guidance and operational support. We provide strategic guidance to our partner companies relating to, among other things, market positioning, business model and product development, strategic capital expenditures, mergers and acquisitions and exit opportunities. Additionally, we provide operational support to help our partner companies manage day-to-day business and operational issues and implement best practices in the areas of finance, sales and marketing, business development, human resources and legal services. Once a company joins our partner company network, our collective expertise is leveraged to help position that company to produce high-margin, recurring and predictable earnings and generate long-term value that we believe can ultimately be captured for our stockholders through either an initial public offering or a strategic sale, or through continued ownership by ICG.

In each of the years ended December 31, 2008 and 2007, two customers of ICG Commerce, which is a consolidated core partner company, accounted for more than 10% of our consolidated revenue. The Hertz Corporation and Kimberly-Clark Corporation each represented approximately 17% of ICG's consolidated revenue for the year ended December 31, 2008. Kimberly-Clark Corporation and The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company represented approximately 24% and 10%, respectively, of ICG's consolidated revenue for the year ended December 31, 2007. Accounts receivable from The Hertz Corporation and Kimberly-Clark Corporation as of December 31, 2008 were $1.3 million and $0.7 million, respectively. Accounts receivable from Kimberly-Clark Corporation as of December 31, 2007 were $1.4 million. Accounts receivable from The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company were not significant in any period presented.

Competition Facing Our Partner Companies

Competition for information technology and Internet products and services is intense. As the market for e-commerce continues to grow, we expect that competition will continue to intensify. Barriers to entry are minimal, and competitors can offer products and services at a relatively low cost. Our partner companies compete with established information systems and management consulting firms, as well as with traditional distribution channels and other online providers, for shares of their customers' purchasing budgets for information technology and consulting services.

Many companies offer information technology solutions and other solutions that compete with our partner companies. We expect that additional companies will offer competing solutions in the future. Furthermore, our partner companies' competitors may develop information technology and Internet products or other services that are superior to, or have greater market acceptance than, the solutions offered by our partner companies. Many of our partner companies' competitors have greater brand recognition and greater financial, marketing and other resources than our partner companies. This may place our partner companies at a disadvantage in responding to their competitors' pricing strategies, technological advances, advertising campaigns, strategic partnerships and other initiatives. If our partner companies are unable to compete successfully against their competitors, our partner companies may fail.

We may compete with our partner companies to acquire interests in software and services companies and our partner companies may compete with each other for these opportunities. This competition may deter companies from partnering with us and may limit our business opportunities.

Employees

Corporate headcount at ICG as of March 2, 2009 was 23. Headcount at our consolidated partner companies as of March 2, 2009 was 509.

ITEM 1A. Risk Factors

Our business involves a number of risks, some of which are beyond our control. You should carefully consider each of the risks and uncertainties we describe below and all of the other information in this Report before deciding to invest in our shares. The risks and uncertainties we describe below are not the only ones we face. Additional risks and uncertainties about which we currently do not know or that we currently believe to be immaterial may also adversely affect our business.

Numerous external forces, including the recent financial crisis, could negatively affect our and our partner companies' respective businesses, results of operations and financial condition.

Numerous external forces, including the state of global financial markets and general economic conditions, lack of consumer confidence, lack of availability of credit, interest rate and currency rate fluctuations and national and international political circumstances (including wars and terrorist acts) could negatively affect our and our partner companies' respective businesses, results of operations and financial condition. The recent global financial crisis affecting the banking system, financial markets and financial institutions has resulted in a tightening in the credit markets, a low level of liquidity in many financial markets and extreme volatility in credit and equity markets. The length of time or severity with which these conditions may persist is unknown. As a consequence, our and our partner companies' respective operating results for a particular period are difficult to predict and, therefore, prior results are not necessarily indicative of expected results in future periods. In response to the financial crisis, many customers and potential customers of our partner companies may forgo, delay or reduce technology and other purchases. In connection with such crisis, our partner companies may experience reductions in the sales of their products and services, extended sales cycles, difficulties in collecting or the inability to collect accounts receivable, slower adoption of new technologies, increased price competition and difficulties in obtaining or the inability to obtain financing. The current volatility in the financial markets and overall economic uncertainty increase the risk that the value of our partner companies and our other assets will be impaired and that the value to be captured in the future in connection with the disposition of our partner companies will be significantly lower than we initially expected.

If we are not able to deploy capital effectively and on acceptable terms, we may not be able to execute our business strategy.

Our strategy includes effectively deploying capital by acquiring interests in new partner companies. We may not be able to identify attractive acquisition candidates that fit our strategy. Even if we are able to identify such candidates, we may not be able to acquire interests in such companies due to an inability to reach mutually acceptable financial or other terms with such companies or due to competition from other potential acquirers that may have greater resources, brand name recognition, industry contacts or flexibility of structure than us. The recent turmoil in the global economy has caused significant declines and fluctuations in the valuations of publicly-traded companies and privately-held companies. Uncertainty regarding the extent to which valuations of companies that fit our acquisition criteria will continue to fluctuate may affect our ability to accurately value potential acquisition candidates. Additionally, the recent economic crisis may make it more difficult for us to obtain capital needed to deploy to new and existing partner companies. If we are unable to effectively deploy capital to partner companies on acceptable terms, we may not be able to execute on our strategy, and our business may be adversely impacted.

If our partner companies are unable to attract new customers or retain customers, including certain significant customers, our and our partner companies' respective businesses, results of operations and financial conditions could be negatively affected.

Our partner companies may not be able to attract or retain customers due to a variety of reasons, including increased competition, the unwillingness of customers and potential customers to spend money on products and services during periods of economic turmoil and uncertainty, insolvency and the unavailability of credit. If our partner companies are unable to attract new customers or retain existing customers, our and our partner companies' respective businesses, results of operations and financial conditions could be negatively affected.

During the year ended December 31, 2008, The Hertz Corporation, a customer of ICG Commerce, represented approximately 17% of our consolidated revenue. For the years ended December 31, 2008 and 2007, approximately 17% and 24%, respectively, of our consolidated revenue related to a second customer of ICG Commerce, Kimberly-Clark Corporation. For each of the years ended December 31, 2007 and 2006, approximately 10% of our consolidated revenue related to The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, a third customer of ICG Commerce. If our partner companies are not able to retain significant customers, such partner companies and our respective businesses, results of operations and financial positions could be negatively affected.

The inability of our partner companies' customers to pay their obligations to them in a timely manner, or at all, could have an adverse effect on our partner companies.

The financial resources of our partner companies' customers may be negatively affected by the current economic downturn. As a result, these customers may have inadequate financial resources to meet all their obligations to our partner companies and may not make payments in a timely manner or at all. Additionally, if our partner companies' customers do not have adequate financial resources, they may attempt to terminate or renegotiate existing contracts with our partner companies and may refrain from purchasing additional products and services from our partner companies. These factors may cause our partner companies' results of operations and financial condition to be adversely affected.

Our partner companies may not be able to compete successfully.

If our partner companies are unable to compete successfully against their competitors, our partner companies may fail. Competition for Internet software and services is intense and is expected to intensify. Our partner companies' competitors may develop products or services that are superior to, or have greater market acceptance than, the solutions offered by our partner companies. Many of our partner companies' competitors have greater brand recognition and greater financial, marketing and other resources than our partner companies. This may place our partner companies at a disadvantage in responding to their competitors' pricing strategies, technological advances, marketing campaigns, strategic partnerships and other initiatives.

The Internet software and services industry is characterized by evolving industry standards, coupled with frequent and related new service and product introductions and enhancements. The development of new service and product introductions and enhancements in response to evolving industry standards requires significant time and resources, and our partner companies may not be able to adapt quickly enough and/or in a cost-effective manner to these changes, and our partner companies' failure to do so could adversely affect our partner companies' businesses, financial condition and results of operations.

We may compete with some of our partner companies, and our partner companies may compete with each other, which could deter companies from partnering with us and may limit future business opportunities.

We may compete with our partner companies to acquire interests in new partner companies, and our partner companies may compete with each other for business opportunities. This competition may deter potential acquisition targets from partnering with us and may limit our business opportunities.

Our operations and growth and that of our partner companies could be impaired by limitations on our and/or their ability to raise capital or borrow money on favorable terms.

We and our partner companies may need to raise additional capital or borrow money in order to sustain operations or to grow. If we or our partner companies are unable to raise capital or obtain credit on favorable terms, our ability and the ability of our partner companies to operate and grow may be impaired. This may require us or our partner companies to take other actions, such as borrowing money on terms that may be unfavorable, or divesting of assets prematurely to raise capital. If we or our partner companies need capital and are unable to raise it, then we or they may need to limit or cease operations.

Adverse changes in economic conditions and reduced information technology spending may adversely impact our business.

Our and our partner companies' respective businesses depend on the overall demand for information technology, and in particular for Internet software and services that improve the productivity of our customers' businesses. In addition, the acquisition of our partner companies' Internet software and services is often discretionary and may require customers to make significant initial contributions of capital and other resources. During the current global financial crisis, business spending on technology infrastructure decreased dramatically. Continued weak economic conditions, or a reduction in information technology spending even if general economic conditions improve, could adversely impact our business and the businesses of our partner companies in a number of ways that negatively impact our operating results and financial condition.

Acquisitions by our partner companies could result in operating difficulties, dilution and other harmful consequences.

As part of their growth strategies, our partner companies have and may continue to strategically acquire other companies, business and technologies. The process of integrating an acquired company, business or technology involves numerous risks, including difficulties in the integration of the operations, technologies, services and products of the acquired company or business and the diversion of management's attention from other business concerns. Although we and our partner companies will endeavor to evaluate the risks inherent in any particular acquisition transaction, there can be no assurance that we or our partner companies will properly ascertain all such risks. In addition, acquisitions may result in the incurrence of substantial additional indebtedness and other expenses for our partner companies; they may also result in potentially dilutive issuances of a partner company's equity securities. Accordingly, difficulties encountered with acquisitions may have a material adverse effect on our or our partner companies' businesses, financial condition and results of operations.

Our inability to maintain or be able to increase our ownership stakes in high growth partner companies could negatively impact our ability to execute our strategy.

One of our strategies is to maintain and increase our ownership in those partner companies that we believe have major growth opportunities. We may not be able to achieve this goal because of limited resources and/or the unwillingness of such companies and/or the stockholders of such companies to enter into a transaction that would result in an increase in our ownership stake. Moreover, certain transactional growth opportunities, such as mergers and consolidations, may arise with respect to any of these partner companies that would result in potentially dilutive issuances of such partner companies equity securities. In the event that any of these select partner companies enters into such a transaction, with or without our support, we may have a decreased ability to direct the policies and affairs of the partner company or the surviving entity following the consummation of the transaction.

If we do not participate in follow-on financings at our partner companies our stakes in such companies will be diluted, which could materially reduce the value of such stakes.

From time to time our partner companies raise capital by issuing and selling additional equity. We generally have preemptive rights to participate in these follow-on rounds of financing; however, we may elect not to participate in such rounds or may be required to waive our preemptive rights in whole or in part so that outside investors can participate. If we do not participate in a follow-on round of a partner company, our ownership interest in such company will be diluted. Additionally, in connection with new rounds of financing, our partner companies may issue preferred stock with liquidation preferences that are senior to existing preferred stock and common stock. If we do not participate in a follow-on round at a partner company, our ownership stake will decrease and our rights to receive proceeds in connection with the sale of that partner company will be diminished, which could result in a material reduction in the value of our stake in that partner company.

We may have to buy, sell or retain assets when we would otherwise choose not to buy, sell or retain in order to avoid registration under the Investment Company Act, which would impact our business strategy.

Under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “Investment Company Act”), a company is considered to be an investment company if, among other things, it is primarily engaged in the business of investing, reinvesting, owning, holding or trading in securities. It is not feasible for us to be regulated as an investment company because the Investment Company Act rules are inconsistent with our strategy of actively managing, operating and promoting collaboration among our network of partner companies. On August 23, 1999, the SEC granted our request for an exemption under Section 3(b)(2) of the Investment Company Act, declaring us to be primarily engaged in a business other than that of investing, reinvesting, owning, holding or trading in securities. This exemptive order reduces, but does not eliminate, the risk that we may have to take action to avoid registration as an investment company. For example, we might be considered to be in violation of our exemptive order if more than a certain percentage of our total assets consist of, or more than certain percentages of our income/loss and revenue over the last four quarters is derived from, ownership interests in companies that we do not primarily control. Because we do not have primary control of many of our partner companies, changes in the value of our interests in such partner companies and the income/loss and revenue attributable to such partner companies could subject us to regulation under the Investment Company Act unless we take precautionary steps. For example, we may retain interests in partner companies we would otherwise want to sell and we may sell stakes in non-controlled partner companies that we would otherwise want to retain. In order to ensure that the requisite percentage of our total assets relates to partner companies that we primarily control, we may participate in follow-on financings at our controlled partner companies and refrain from participating in such financings at our non-controlled partner companies. In addition, we may have to acquire additional income or loss generating majority-owned or controlled interests that we might not otherwise have acquired and may not be able to acquire “non-controlling” interests in companies that we would otherwise want to acquire.

Our partner companies could make financial or other business decisions that are not in our best interests or that we do not agree with, which could impair the value of our partner company interests.

Although we generally seek to acquire a significant equity interest and participate in the management of our partner companies, we may not acquire or maintain a controlling interest in each partner company. If we lack control or share control in a partner company we may not be able to control significant financial or other business decisions of such partner company. Management or other stockholders of a partner company could have economic or business interests or objectives that are different from ours or disagree with our advice regarding financial or operating decisions, which could impair the value of our interest, prevent us from monetizing our interest at a time or at a price that is favorable to us or negatively affect our operating results. Additionally, our inability to prevent dilution of our ownership interests in a partner company or our inability to otherwise have a controlling influence over the management and operations of a partner company could have an adverse impact on our status under the Investment Company Act.

We may not be able to extract cash from those partner companies that achieve profitability and may need to continue to rely on existing cash, liquidity events and additional capital raises to fund our operations.

We currently rely on existing cash, partner company liquidity events and the issuance and sale of additional securities in order to fund our operations. One of our goals is to help our partner companies achieve profitability so that we can access their cash flow. However, even if certain of our partner companies do meet that goal, we may not be able to access cash generated by such partner companies to fund our operations due to a number of factors, including the needs of such companies to reinvest in their own businesses and our inability to control the significant business or financial decisions of such companies. Our inability to access the cash of our partner companies could have a negative impact on our operations.

If public capital markets are not favorable for initial public offerings, we may not be able to capture stockholder value.

The market for initial public offerings has experienced significant weakness in connection with recent market volatility. If this market is weak, we may not be able to capture stockholder value by taking our partner companies public.

We may be unable to obtain maximum value in connection with the divestiture of partner company and marketable security interests.

From time to time, we may divest of interests in partner companies or marketable securities to generate cash or for strategic reasons. The timing of such divestitures, particularly with respect to our privately-held partner companies, may not be within our control. If we need to quickly divest partner company interests to satisfy immediate cash requirements or to avoid registration as an investment company under the Investment Company Act, we may be forced to sell our assets prior to canvassing the market or at a time when market conditions valuations are unfavorable. We also may not be able to identify buyers for certain of our assets, particularly given the difficulty that potential acquirers may currently face in obtaining financing. Furthermore, in connection with the sale of a private partner company, we may not receive the full amount of proceeds to which we would otherwise be entitled under such company's certificate of incorporation if additional payments to management and/or other stockholders are made to secure the approval and/or execution of such transaction. We may be unable to sell our interests in public-traded companies at then-quoted market prices, if at all, because low trading volumes of these companies may limit our ability to sell a significant amount of such companies' stock in the open market. Registration and other requirements under applicable securities laws may also adversely affect our ability to dispose of our interests on a timely basis. Based on the foregoing factors, when we divest of an interest in a partner company or a marketable security, we may not receive maximum value for that asset and the realizable value of our interest in such asset may ultimately be lower than the carrying value currently reflected in our consolidated financial statements and/or the expectations our investors or securities analysts.

Our accounting estimates with respect to the ultimate recoverability of our basis in our partner companies could change materially in the near term.

Our accounting estimates with respect to the useful life and ultimate recoverability of our carrying basis, including goodwill, in our partner companies could change in the near term, and the effect of such changes on our consolidated financial statements could be significant. In 2008 we recorded impairment charges of $23.2 million. It is possible that a significant write-down or write-off of partner company carrying basis, including goodwill, may be required in the future, or that a significant loss will be recorded in the future upon the sale of one or more partner companies. Any write-down or write-off of this type could cause a decline in the price of our Common Stock.

Our stock price has been volatile in the past and may continue to be volatile in the future.

Our stock price has historically been volatile. This volatility may continue in the future, particularly in light of the current uncertainty about global economic conditions.

The following factors, among others, may add to our Common Stock price's volatility:

- general economic conditions, such as a recession or interest rate or currency rate fluctuations;
- the reluctance of enterprises to increase spending on new products or services;
- actual or anticipated variations in our quarterly results and those of our partner companies;
- changes in the market valuations of our partner companies and other similar companies;
- conditions or trends related to Internet software and services companies;
- changes in our financial estimates and those of our partner companies by securities analysts;
- new products or services offered by us, our partner companies and their competitors;
- announcements by our partner companies and their competitors of technological innovations;
- announcements by us, our partner companies or our competitors of significant acquisitions, strategic partnerships or joint ventures;
- additional sales or repurchases of our securities; and
- additions to or departures of our key personnel or the key personnel of our partner companies.

Many of these factors are beyond our control. These factors may decrease the market price of our Common Stock.

Fluctuations in our quarterly results may adversely affect our stock price.

We expect that our quarterly results will fluctuate significantly due to many factors, including:

- the acquisition of interests in partner companies;
- the operating results of our partner companies;
- sales of our ownership interests in our partner companies, which could cause us to recognize gains or losses under applicable accounting rules;
- significant fluctuations in the financial results of Internet software and services companies generally;
- changes in estimated quarterly equity losses or income;
- changes in our methods of accounting for our partner company interests, which may result from changes in our ownership percentages of our partner companies;
- the pace of development or a decline in growth of the Internet software and services markets; and
- competition for the goods and services offered by our partner companies.

If our operating results in one or more quarters do not meet securities analysts' or investors' expectations, the price of our Common Stock could decrease.

Fluctuations in the price of the common stock of our publicly-traded holdings may affect the price of our Common Stock.

Currently, the Company holds stock of Blackboard and GoIndustry, each of which is a publicly-traded entity. Fluctuations in the price of the common stock of Blackboard, GoIndustry or any of our other publicly-traded holdings are likely to affect the price of our Common Stock. The price of these publicly-traded companies' common stock has been highly volatile. As of December 31, 2008, the market value of our interest in these publicly-traded companies was $62.7 million, which was based upon a $26.23 per share closing price for Blackboard and a $0.04 per share closing price for GoIndustry. The results of operations and, accordingly, the price of the stock, of Blackboard and GoIndustry may be adversely affected by the occurrence of the risk factors contained in this Report. In addition, the results of operations and stock price of Blackboard may be adversely affected by the risk factors in Blackboard's SEC filings, which are publicly available at www.sec.gov, and the results of operations and common stock price of GoIndustry may be adversely affected by the factors set forth in GoIndustry's submissions on the AIM market of the London Stock Exchange, which are publicly available at www.londonstockexchange.com.

We have had a general history of losses and expect continued losses in the foreseeable future.

We have had significant operating losses and, excluding the effect of any future non-operating gains, such as from the sale of interests in partner companies, we expect to continue incurring operating losses in the future. As a result, we may not have sufficient resources to expand or maintain our operations in the future. We can give no assurances as to when or whether we will achieve profitability, and if we ever have profits, we may not be able to sustain them.

Certain of our partner companies have a limited operating history and may never be profitable.

Certain of our partner companies have limited operating histories. As a result, they have only short operating histories to aid in assessing future prospects. Additionally, certain of our partner companies have significant historical losses and may never be profitable. Many of our partner companies have incurred substantial costs to develop and market their products and expand operations, have incurred net losses and cannot fund their cash needs from operations. Operating expenses of these companies could increase in the foreseeable future as they continue to develop products, increase sales and marketing efforts and expand operations.

The loss of our or our partner companies' executive officers or other key personnel or our or our partner companies' inability to attract additional key personnel could disrupt our business and operations.

If one or more of our executive officers or key personnel, including highly trained information technology personnel, or our partner companies' executive officers or key personnel, including highly trained information technology personnel, were unable or unwilling to continue in their present positions, or if we or our partner companies were unable to hire qualified personnel, our business and operations could be disrupted and our operating results and financial condition could be seriously harmed.

Our partner companies' success depends on the integrity of their systems and infrastructure. Interruptions in their information systems may adversely affect their businesses.

To succeed, our partner companies' systems and infrastructure must perform well on a consistent basis. From time to time, our partner companies may experience occasional system interruptions that make some or all of their systems or data unavailable or prevent them from providing services, which could adversely affect their businesses. Moreover, as traffic to their various websites and the related number of uses and customers increase and the number products and services that they introduce continues to grow, they will need to upgrade their systems, infrastructure and technologies generally to facilitate this growth. If our partner companies do not do so or if they experience inefficiencies and/or operational failures in connection with current or future upgrades, third parties with which they do business may not be able to access their services on an intermittent or prolonged basis and the quality of experience that users and customers encounter with their products and services generally could diminish. The occurrence of any of these events could adversely affect their businesses, financial condition and results of operations.

We and our partner companies may be subject to litigation proceedings or government regulation that could harm our respective businesses.

We and our partner companies may be subject to legal claims involving stockholder, consumer, competition and other matters. Litigation is subject to inherent uncertainties, and unfavorable rulings could occur. An unfavorable ruling could include monetary damages or, in cases for which injunctive relief is sought, an injunction prohibiting one of our partner companies from performing a critical activity, such as selling its software and services. If we or one of our partner companies were to receive an unfavorable ruling in a litigation matter, our and our partner companies' respective businesses, financial condition and results of operations could be materially harmed. Even if legal claims brought against us or our partner companies are without merit, defending lawsuits may take significant time, be expensive and divert our or our partner companies' management attention from other business concerns.

Our partner companies' software and services offerings are subject to government regulation domestically and internationally in many areas, including regulation of the Internet regarding user privacy, telecommunications, data protection and online content. The application of these laws and regulations to our partner companies' businesses is often unclear and sometimes may conflict. Compliance with these regulations may involve significant costs or require changes in business practices that result in reduced revenue. Noncompliance could result in monetary penalties being imposed on our partner companies or orders that our partner companies cease performing a critical activity, such as selling their software and services.

Some of our partner companies may be unable to protect their proprietary rights and may be subject to claims that they infringe on the proprietary rights of others.

Intellectual property constitutes an important part of our partner companies' assets and competitive strengths. Although our partner companies take steps to protect the rights to their intellectual property, their efforts may not be adequate to prevent misappropriation of their intellectual property, or third parties may develop similar intellectual property independently. Third parties may assert infringement or other intellectual property claims against our partner companies based on their patents or other intellectual property claims. If it is ultimately determined that our partner companies infringe on a third-party's patents, they may have to pay substantial damages. They may have to obtain a license to sell their products if it is determined that their products infringe another person's intellectual property. Our partner companies might be prohibited from selling their products before they obtain a license, which, if available at all, may require them to pay substantial royalties.

We have implemented certain anti-takeover provisions that could make it more difficult for a third party to acquire us.

Provisions of our amended certificate of incorporation and bylaws, as well as provisions of Delaware law, could make it more difficult for a third party to acquire us, even if doing so would be beneficial to our stockholders. Our amended certificate of incorporation provides that our board of directors may issue preferred stock without stockholder approval and also provides for a staggered board of directors. We are subject to the provisions of Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, which restricts certain business combinations with interested stockholders. Additionally, we have a rights agreement which has the effect of discouraging any person or group from beneficially owning more than 15% of our outstanding Common Stock unless our board has amended the plan or redeemed the rights. The combination of these provisions may inhibit a non-negotiated merger or other business combination.

ITEM 3. Legal Proceedings

In May and June 2001, certain of the Company's present directors, along with the Company, certain of its former directors, certain of its present and former officers and its underwriters, were named as defendants in nine class action complaints filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. The plaintiffs and the putative classes they seek to represent include present and former stockholders of the Company. The complaints generally allege violations of Sections 11 and 12 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and Rule 10b-5 promulgated under the Exchange Act, based on, among other things, the dissemination of statements allegedly containing material misstatements and/or omissions concerning the commissions received by the underwriters of the initial public offering and follow-on public offering of the Company as well as failure to disclose the existence of purported agreements by the underwriters with some of the purchasers in these offerings to buy additional shares of the Company's stock subsequently in the open market at pre-determined prices above the initial offering prices. The plaintiffs seek for themselves and the alleged class members an award of damages and litigation costs and expenses. The claims in these cases have been consolidated for pre-trial purposes (together with claims against other issuers and underwriters) before one judge in the Southern District of New York federal court. In April 2002, a consolidated, amended complaint was filed against these defendants which generally alleges the same violations and also refers to alleged misstatements or omissions that relate to the recommendations regarding the Company's stock by analysts employed by the underwriters. In June and July 2002, defendants, including the Company defendants, filed motions to dismiss plaintiffs' complaints on numerous grounds. The Company's motion was denied in its entirety in an opinion dated February 19, 2003. In July 2003, a committee of the Company's Board of Directors approved a proposed settlement with the plaintiffs in this matter, which was preliminarily approved by the District Court overseeing the litigation in February 2005. A final fairness hearing on the settlement was held on April 24, 2006. On December 5, 2006, however, the Second Circuit Court of Appeals reversed the certification of plaintiff classes in six actions related to other issuers that had been designated as test cases with respect to the non-settling defendants in those matters (the "Focus Cases") and made other rulings that drew into question the legal viability of the claims in the Focus Cases. The Court of Appeals later rejected the plaintiffs' request that it reconsider that decision. As a result, on June 25, 2007, the District Court approved a stipulation and order terminating the proposed settlement. While the Court of Appeals decision does not automatically apply to the case against the Company, the defendants have moved for an order that would apply the decision to all cases, including the consolidated action against the Company. On August 14, 2007, the plaintiffs filed an amended "master" complaint containing allegations purportedly common to all defendants in all actions and filed amended complaints containing specific allegations against the six issuer defendants in the Focus Cases. In addition, on September 27, 2007, the plaintiffs again moved to certify classes in each of the Focus Cases. The defendants in the Focus Cases have moved to dismiss the amended complaints. Rulings on both the motion to certify the Focus Cases as class actions and to dismiss those cases remain outstanding. The Court has approved a stipulation extending the time within which the plaintiffs must file amended pleadings containing specific allegations against the other issuer defendants, including the Company, and the time within which those defendants must move, answer or otherwise respond to those specific allegations.

ITEM 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Introduction

The following Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of certain factors, including those set forth elsewhere in this Report and the risks discussed in our other SEC filings. The following discussion should be read in conjunction with our audited Consolidated Financial Statements and the related Notes thereto included in this Report.

Although we refer in this Report to companies in which we have acquired a convertible debt or an equity ownership interest as our "partner companies" and indicate that we have a "partnership" with these companies, we do not act as an agent or legal representative for any of our partner companies, we do not have the power or authority to legally bind any of our partner companies, and we do not have the types of liabilities in relation to our partner companies that a general partner of a partnership would have.

The Consolidated Financial Statements include the consolidated accounts of Internet Capital Group, Inc., a company incorporated in Delaware, and its subsidiaries, both wholly-owned and consolidated (Internet Capital Group, Inc. and all such subsidiaries, are hereinafter referred to as "we," "us," "our," "ICG," the "Company" or "Internet Capital Group"), and have been prepared in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the United States of America ("GAAP").

Executive Summary

Since our inception in 1996, we have focused on acquiring and building Internet software and services companies that improve the productivity and efficiency of their business customers. We call these companies our "partner companies." As of December 31, 2008 and the date of this Report, we hold ownership interests in fourteen companies that we consider our partner companies. Additionally, we hold marketable securities in other companies, which, as of December 31, 2008 and the date of this Report consist primarily of Blackboard common stock. The results of operations of our partner companies are reported within two segments: the "core" reporting segment and the "other holdings" reporting segment. The core reporting segment includes those partner companies in which ICG's management takes a very active role in providing strategic direction and management assistance. We devote significant expertise and capital to maximizing the success of these core partner companies. The other holdings reporting segment includes partner companies over which, in general, we have less influence because they are public companies and/or we have a relatively small ownership stake in those partner companies.

The various interests that we acquire in our partner companies are accounted for under one of three accounting methods: the consolidation method, the equity method or the cost method. The applicable accounting method is generally determined based on our voting interest in a partner company. Generally, if we own more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of a partner company, and other stockholders do not possess the right to affect the significant management decisions of that partner company, the partner company's accounts are reflected within our Consolidated Financial Statements. Generally, if we own between 20% and 50% of the outstanding voting securities of a partner company, that partner company's accounts are not reflected within our Consolidated Financial Statements, but our share of the earnings or losses of the partner company is reflected in the caption "Equity loss" in our consolidated statements of operations. Partner companies not accounted for under either the consolidation or the equity method of accounting are accounted for under the cost method of accounting. Under this method, our share of the earnings or losses of these companies is not included in our consolidated statements of operations.

Because we own significant interests in software and services companies, many of which have generated net losses, we have experienced, and expect to continue to experience, significant volatility in our quarterly results. While many of our partner companies have consistently reported losses, we have recorded net income in certain periods and experienced significant volatility from period-to-period due to infrequently occurring transactions and other events relating to our ownership interests in partner companies. These transactions and events are described in more detail in our Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements and include dispositions of, changes to and impairment of our partner company ownership interests, dispositions of our holdings of marketable securities and debt repurchases.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The following table summarizes our and our consolidated subsidiaries' cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash and marketable securities as of December 31, 2008 and 2007:

	December 31, 2008			December 31, 2007
	Corporate	Consolidated Subsidiaries	Total	Corporate	Consolidated Subsidiaries	Total
	(in thousands)
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 73,208	$ 16,087	$ 89,295	$ 69,125	$ 12,906	$ 82,031
Restricted Cash (1)	—	232	232	—	5	5
	$ 73,208	$ 16,319	$ 89,527	$ 69,125	$ 12,911	$ 82,036
Marketable securities (2)	$ 63,918	$ —	$ 63,918	$ 84,376	$ —	$ 84,376

(1) Restricted cash at December 31, 2007 does not include $0.2 million of long-term restricted cash included in "Other" assets on the Company's consolidated balance sheets.

(2) Includes a contributing asset of $6.5 million at December 31, 2008 and an offsetting liability of $3.7 million at December 31, 2007 related to derivative instruments associated with the Company's marketable securities.

We believe existing cash and cash equivalents and proceeds from the potential sales of all or a portion of our interests in certain marketable securities and partner companies to be sufficient to fund our cash requirements for the foreseeable future, including any future commitments to partner companies, debt obligations and general operations requirements. On February 3, 2009, we entered into certain arrangements under which we have guaranteed approximately $3.6 million of debt for a partner company. Under these arrangements, we placed approximately $3.6 million in a bank account that may be used to repay the partner company debt when it matures in 2009 or otherwise becomes due and payable. We will receive additional preferred ownership interests with respect to this partner company if and to the extent that any funds from the bank account are used to repay debt in connection with these guarantee arrangements. Funds from the bank account will be returned to us if and to the extent that all or any portion of the $3.6 million debt is forgiven, discharged or repaid from some source other than the bank account. As of the date of this filing, we were not obligated for any other material funding and guarantee commitments to existing partner companies. We will continue to evaluate acquisition opportunities and may acquire additional ownership interests in new and existing partner companies in the next twelve months; however, such acquisitions will generally be made at our discretion.

ICG Commerce, Investor Force and Vcommerce have funded their operations through a combination of cash flow from operations, borrowings and equity issuances. ICG Commerce expects that its existing cash balance and cash flow from operations will be sufficient to fund its operations through 2009, while Investor Force and Vcommerce are expected to require additional borrowings and/or equity issuances to fund their respective operations through 2009.

Consolidated working capital improved by $4.5 million from December 31, 2007 to December 31, 2008, primarily due to cash proceeds received from the sales of marketable securities, partially offset by acquisitions of ownership interests in existing partner companies.

Summary of Statements of Cash Flows

	Year Ended December 31,
	2008	2007 (in thousands)	2006
Cash used in operating activities	$ (12,385)	$ (16,174)	$ (7,325)
Cash provided by (used in) investing activities	$ 28,964	$ 15,428	$ (7,019)
Cash used in financing activities	$ (8,593)	$ (37,960)	$ (9,454)

The decrease in cash used in operating activities from 2007 to 2008 is due to an improved net loss position, other income from sales of partner companies and the receipt of a $4.9 million federal income tax refund in 2008 compared with 2007, offset by greater equity loss and impairment charges in 2008. The increase in cash used in operating activities from 2006 to 2007 is primarily due to the receipt of a $8.1 million refund received in 2006 related to $26.9 million of estimated federal income tax payments paid in 2005.

The increase in cash provided by investing activities from 2007 to 2008 is primarily related to proceeds received from the sale of marketable securities, partially offset by greater net acquisitions of ownership interests in partner companies in 2008 versus 2007. The variability in cash provided by (used in) investing activities in 2007 versus 2006 is the result of net monetizations of ownership interests in partner companies and marketable securities in 2007 versus net acquisition of ownership interests in partner companies in 2006.

The decrease in cash used in financing activities from 2007 to 2008 is the result of the repurchases of the Company's Common Stock in 2008, which was less than the repurchase of all outstanding senior convertible notes in 2007. The increase in cash used in financing activities from 2006 to 2007 is primarily related to repurchases of notes in 2007 versus proceeds from employee loan repayments in 2006 and a lower amount of notes repurchased in 2006.

We and our consolidated subsidiaries are involved in various claims and legal actions arising in the ordinary course of business. We do not expect any ultimate liability with respect to these actions will materially affect our financial position or cash flows.

Contractual Cash Obligations and Commercial Commitments

The following table summarizes our contractual cash obligations and commercial commitments as of December 31, 2008:

	$ 16,398	$ 2,542	$ 3,911	$ 6,026	$ 3,919

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We are not involved in any off-balance sheet arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have a material future effect on our financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources.

See "Note 3 — Ownership Interests in Partner Companies, Goodwill and Intangibles, net" to Consolidated Financial Statements.

Results of Operations

The following table summarizes the unaudited selected financial information related to our segments. Each segment includes the results of our consolidated partner companies and records our share of the earnings and losses of partner companies accounted for under the equity method of accounting. The partner companies included within the segments are consistently the same partner companies for 2008, 2007 and 2006. Additionally, Channel Intelligence and Vcommerce, the partner companies in which we acquired an interest after January 1, 2006, are included in the core segment from their respective acquisition dates, and ClickEquations is included in the other holdings segment beginning in March 2008, at which time we acquired more than 20% of its voting securities and began to record our share of the earnings and losses of ClickEquations under the equity method of accounting. The method of accounting for any particular partner company may change based on our ownership interest.

"Discontinued Operations and Dispositions" are those partner companies that have been sold or ceased operations and are no longer included in a segment for all periods presented. "Corporate" expenses represent the general and administrative expenses of our business operations, which include supporting the partner companies and operating as a public company. The measure of segment net loss reviewed by us does not include items such as gains on the disposition of partner company ownership interests and marketable securities holdings, losses on convertible note repurchases and transactions, income taxes, accounting changes and impairment charges associated with partner companies, which are reflected in "Other" reconciling items in the information that follows.

Results of Operations — Core Companies

The following presentation of our Results of Operations — Core Companies includes the results of our consolidated core partner companies and our share of the results of our equity method core partner companies.

Selected data:	Year Ended December 31,

Revenues

Revenue increased $18.3 million to $71.2 million in 2008, from $52.9 million in 2007. $11.9 million of the increase is attributable to ICG Commerce. ICG Commerce provides procurement outsourcing services generally under long-term relationships. These long-term relationships continued to contribute to ICG Commerce's success with revenue increasing 23% in 2008 over 2007. The majority of ICG Commerce's contracts are terminable by the client on short notice or without notice, sometimes without financial penalty. Accordingly, we do not believe it is appropriate to characterize the total contract value of these long-term relationships as backlog. The consolidation of Vcommerce beginning in May 2008 contributed the majority of the residual increase.

Revenue decreased $11.8 million, from $64.7 million in 2006 to $52.9 million in 2007. The primary driver of the decrease is the deconsolidation of StarCite for all of 2007. StarCite completed a transaction to consolidate with OnVantage, Inc. on December 29, 2006. Following the closing of the transaction, our ownership interest in the combined entity is accounted for under the equity method of accounting and StarCite revenue is not consolidated. The 2007 revenue decrease was partially offset by increased revenues at ICG Commerce.

Operating Expenses

Operating expenses increased $17.2 million, from $56.8 million in 2007 to $74.0 million in 2008. This increase is the result of consolidating Vcommerce beginning in May 2008, which contributed $9.5 million, as well as an increase in operating expenses related to ICG Commerce's increased revenues in 2008.

Operating expenses decreased $17.5 million, from $74.3 million in 2006 to $56.8 million in 2007. The primary driver of the decrease is the deconsolidation of StarCite for all of the 2007 period versus being included for all of the 2006 period.

Equity Loss

A portion of our net results from our core companies is derived from those partner companies in which we hold a substantial minority ownership interest. Our share of the net income or net losses of these companies is recorded in our Consolidated Statements of Operations under "Equity loss."

Selected data:	Year Ended December 31,
	2008	2007	2006
		(in thousands)
Total revenues	$ 193,498	$ 161,486	$ 69,088
Total net loss	$ (46,505)	$ (40,208)	$ (17,767)
Our share of total net loss ("equity loss")	$ (19,117)	$ (14,414)	$ (5,588)

The 2008 increases over 2007 are primarily the result of increased net losses at Metastorm and StarCite. Metastorm's net loss increased as the result of increased amortization expense associated with an acquisition, litigation expenses and expenses associated with an initial public offering that was not consummated. StarCite's net loss increased as the result of severance and merger integration expenses. Accordingly, our share of the total net loss increased.

The 2007 increases over 2006 are primarily the result of the inclusion of StarCite as an equity method core company for all of 2007 after its previously-mentioned merger with OnVantage and the addition of Channel Intelligence for all of 2007. Our share of the net loss also increased in 2007 versus the prior periods as a result of those companies in which our ownership had increased relative to prior years (primarily Channel Intelligence and Vcommerce) experiencing an increase in net losses as these companies continue to increase operating expenses to expand market share.

Results of Operations — Other Holdings Companies

The following presentation of our Results of Operations — Other Holdings Companies includes the results of our consolidated other holdings partner companies and our share of the results of our equity method other holdings partner companies.

Selected data:	Year Ended December 31,
	2008	2007	2006
Revenues	$ —	$ —	$ —
Operating expenses	—	—	—
Interest and other	—	—	—
Equity income (loss)	(4,381)	(856)	592
Net income (loss)	$ (4,381)	$ (856)	$ 592

Equity loss related to our other holdings increased in 2008 and 2007 as a result of GoIndustry recording more net losses both periods and the addition of ClickEquations as an equity method company in 2008.

Results of Operations — Reconciling Items

Discontinued Operations and Dispositions

The following is a summary of the components included in “Discontinued Operations and Dispositions,” a reconciling item for segment reporting purposes:

	Year Ended December 31,
	2008	2007	2006
		(in thousands)
Discontinued operations	$ —	$ 995	$ 8,289
Equity income (loss) of partner companies sold/disposed of	—	854	(465)

In 2006, Investor Force completed the sale of its database division to Morningstar, Inc. (“Morningstar”) for $10.0 million. In 2007 and 2006, the Company received $0.2 million and $0.1 million, respectively, of additional proceeds from the sale of the assets of Delphion, Inc. In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (“SFAS”) No. 144, these three operations have been treated as discontinued operations. Accordingly, the operating results of these discontinued operations have been presented separately from continuing operations and include the gains or losses recognized on disposition. See Note 7 to our Consolidated Financial Statements.

Cash proceeds to Investor Force of $9.0 million were received in August 2006, and $1.0 million was received in August 2007. The Company recorded gains of approximately $7.0 million and $1.0 million on this transaction in 2006 and 2007, respectively. The remaining $0.2 million loss for 2007 and the $1.2 million of income from discontinued operations related to the 2006 operating activities of the Investor Force database division.

The impact to our consolidated results of equity method partner companies in which we disposed of our ownership interest, or which have ceased operations, during 2007 and 2006 is also included in the caption “Dispositions” for segment reporting purposes. Equity income primarily relates to Marketron International, Inc. (“Marketron”) in 2007 and 2006.

General and Administrative

Our general and administrative expenses decreased $1.9 million in 2008 from 2007, primarily due to decreases in employee-related expenses associated with our annual bonus program of $1.4 million and stock-based compensation of $0.7 million partially offset by and other outside services of $0.2 million.

Our general and administrative expenses increased $0.8 million in 2007 from 2006, primarily due to increased employee costs and other outside services of $1.7 million partially offset by a decrease in stock-based compensation of $0.9 million.

Impairment related and other

Our impairment related and other expenses increased $0.8 million due to severance charges. Those charges primarily related to cash payments of $0.7 million paid in January 2009. The residual balance is associated with related benefits, which will be paid over the next twelve months.

Interest Income/Expense

The net $3.1 million decrease in our interest income (expense) from 2007 to 2008 is attributable to the decrease in our average cash balances compounded with decreases in interest rates.

The $2.4 million decrease in our net interest income (expense) from 2006 to 2007 is attributable to the decrease in our average cash balances.

Other income (loss), net of ($0.2) million in 2007 related to the loss on the note repurchases offset by the gain on the sale of Marketron.

Other income (loss), net of $34.8 million in 2006 is primarily the result of gains on the sales of partner companies and marketable securities.

See Note 15 to our Consolidated Financial Statements.

Impairment Charges

We recorded impairment charges of $23.2 million in 2008. See Note 3 to our Consolidated Financial Statements.

Income Tax

Our net deferred tax asset of $442.1 million at December 31, 2008 consists of deferred tax assets of $463.4 million, relating primarily to partner company basis differences, capital and net operating loss carry forwards, offset by deferred tax liabilities of $21.3 million, primarily related to unrealized appreciation in marketable securities. We have recorded a full valuation allowance against our net deferred tax assets at December 31, 2007 and 2008.

The income tax benefit recorded in 2008 and 2007 represents the amount that can be carried back to 2005.

See Note 12 to our Consolidated Financial Statements.

Critical Accounting Policies

Our discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations are based upon our Consolidated Financial Statements, which have been prepared in accordance with GAAP. The preparation of these financial statements requires us to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. On an ongoing basis, we evaluate our estimates, including those related to our interests in our partner companies, marketable securities, revenues, income taxes and commitments and contingencies. We base our estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

We believe the following critical accounting policies are important to the presentation of our financial statements and require the most difficult, subjective and complex judgments.

Valuation of Goodwill, Intangible Assets and Ownership Interests in Partner Companies

We perform ongoing business reviews and annual goodwill impairment tests in accordance with SFAS No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets," and other impairment tests in accordance with Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion No. 18, "Equity Method Investments" and SFAS No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets," and use quantitative and qualitative measures to assess the need to record impairment losses on goodwill, intangible assets and ownership interests in our partner companies when impairment indicators are present. Where impairment indicators are present, we determine the amount of the impairment charge as the excess of the carrying value over the fair value. We determine fair value using a combination of the discounted cash flow methodology, which is based upon converting expected future cash flows to present value, and the market approach, which includes analysis of market price multiples of companies engaged in lines of business similar to the company being evaluated. The market price multiples are selected and applied to the company based on relative performance, future prospects and risk profile of the company in comparison to the guideline companies. Significant assumptions relating to future operating results must be made when estimating the future cash flows associated with these companies. Significant assumptions relating to achievement of business plan objectives and milestones must be made when evaluating whether impairment indicators are present. Should unforeseen events occur or should operating trends change significantly, additional impairment losses could occur.

Revenue Recognition

ICG Commerce may assume all or a part of a customer's procurement function as part of sourcing arrangements. Typically, in these engagements, ICG Commerce is paid a fixed fee agreed upon in advance and/or a fee based on a percentage of the amount spent by its customers' respective purchasing departments in the specified areas ICG Commerce manages. Additionally, in some cases, ICG Commerce has the opportunity to earn additional fees based on the level of savings achieved for customers. ICG Commerce recognizes revenue and any additional fees as earned, which is typically over the life of the customer contract, which approximates the life of the customer relationship.

Vcommerce generates revenue from service fees earned by it in connection with the development and operations of its clients' e-commerce businesses. Service fee revenue primarily consists of transaction fees, implementation fees and professional services, as well as access and maintenance fees. Vcommerce recognizes revenue from services provided when the following revenue criteria are met: persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, services have been rendered, the fee is fixed or determinable, and collectibility is reasonably assured. Vcommerce recognizes revenue over the term of the customer contract, and transaction fees and professional services, implementation, access and maintenance fees as services are rendered.

StarCite was a consolidated company through December 29, 2006, at which time it merged with another company, reducing our ownership interest to below 50%, and became an equity method company. StarCite's revenues were primarily derived from hotel media marketing packages, attendee management software, site selection and various enabling technologies. Marketing package, attendee management software and enabling technology revenues were recognized over the life of the contract, which approximated the life of the customer relationship and typically ranged from one to three years. Site selection revenues were recognized at the time the meeting occurred, which assumed no significant performance obligation remained.

Equity Income/Loss

We record our share of our partner companies' net income/loss, which are accounted for under the equity method of accounting as equity income/loss. As we do not control these companies, this equity income/loss is based on unaudited results of operations of our partner companies and may require adjustment in the future when the audits of our partner companies are complete. The compilation and review of these results of operations require significant judgment and estimates by management.

Deferred Income Taxes

We record a valuation allowance to reduce our net deferred tax assets to the amount that is more likely than not to be realized. We consider future taxable income and prudent and feasible tax planning strategies in determining the need for a valuation allowance. In the event that we determine that we would not be able to realize all or part of our net deferred tax assets, an adjustment to the deferred tax assets would be charged to earnings in the period such determination is made. Likewise, if we later determine that it is more likely than not that the net deferred tax assets would be realized, then the previously provided valuation allowance would be reversed.

Commitments and Contingencies

From time to time, we are a defendant or plaintiff in various legal actions that arise in the normal course of business. From time to time, we are also a guarantor of various third-party obligations and commitments. We are required to assess the likelihood of any adverse judgments or outcomes to these matters, as well as potential ranges of probable losses. A determination of the amount of reserves required for these contingencies, if any, which would be charged to earnings, is made after careful analysis of each individual matter. The required reserves may change in the future due to new developments in each matter or changes in circumstances, such as a change in settlement strategy. Changes in required reserves could increase or decrease our earnings in the period the changes are made.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In September 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (the “FASB”) issued SFAS No. 157, “Fair Value Measurements” (“SFAS No. 157”). SFAS No. 157 clarifies the definition of fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value and expands the disclosures on fair value measurements. In February 2008, the FASB issued two final staff positions (“FSP SFAS 157-1” and “FSP SFAS 157-2”) amending SFAS No. 157. FSP SFAS 157-1 amends SFAS 157 to exclude SFAS No. 13, “Accounting for Leases,” and its related interpretive accounting pronouncements that address leasing transactions. FSP SFAS 157-2 delays the effective date of SFAS No. 157 until fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2008 for nonfinancial assets and nonfinancial liabilities that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements on a nonrecurring basis. The Company adopted SFAS No. 157 on January 1, 2008, except for the items covered by FSP SFAS 157-2. See Note 2 to our Consolidated Financial Statements.

In February 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 159, “The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities” (“SFAS No. 159”). Under this Standard, we may elect to report cost and equity partner companies, marketable securities, hedges and certain other items at fair value on a contract-by-contract basis with changes in value reported in earnings. This election is irrevocable. SFAS No. 159 is effective for us for the fiscal year beginning January 1, 2008. We have elected not to apply the fair value option to any of our current eligible financial assets and liabilities.

In December 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 141 (revised 2007), “Business Combinations” (“SFAS No. 141(R)”). SFAS No. 141(R) amends the principles and requirements for how an acquirer recognizes and measures in its financial statements the identifiable assets acquired, the liabilities assumed, any noncontrolling interest in the acquiree and the goodwill acquired. SFAS No. 141(R) also establishes disclosure requirements to enable the evaluation of the nature and financial effects of the business combination. SFAS No. 141(R) is effective for our fiscal year beginning on January 1, 2009, and we will apply it prospectively to all business combinations subsequent to our effective date. We are currently evaluating the impact that the adoption of SFAS No. 141(R) will have on our consolidated financial statements.

In December 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 160, “Noncontrolling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements—an amendment of Accounting Research Bulletin No. 51” (“SFAS No. 160”). SFAS No. 160 establishes accounting and reporting standards for a noncontrolling interest in a subsidiary and for the deconsolidation of a subsidiary. SFAS No. 160 also establishes disclosure requirements that clarify the distinctions between controlling and noncontrolling interests. SFAS No. 160 requires retroactive adoption of the presentation and disclosure requirements for existing minority interests. All other requirements of SFAS No. 160 shall be applied prospectively. SFAS No. 160 would have an impact on the presentation and disclosure of the noncontrolling interests of any non wholly-owned businesses acquired in the future. SFAS No. 160 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008, which is the Company’s year beginning on January 1, 2009. We are currently evaluating the impact that the adoption of SFAS No. 160 will have on our consolidated financial statements.

In March 2008, the FASB issued SFAS No. 161, “Disclosures about Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities—an amendment of SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivatives and Hedging Activities” (“SFAS No. 161”). SFAS No. 161 is intended to improve financial reporting of derivative instruments and hedging activities by requiring enhanced disclosures to enable financial statement users to better understand the effects of derivatives and hedging on an entity’s financial position, financial performance and cash flows. The provisions of SFAS No. 161 are effective for interim periods and years beginning after November 15, 2008, which is the Company’s year beginning on January 1, 2009. We are currently evaluating the impact that the adoption of SFAS No. 161 will have on our consolidated financial statements.

In May 2008, the FASB issued SFAS No. 162, “The Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles” (“SFAS No. 162”). SFAS No. 162 identifies the sources for GAAP in the U.S. and lists the categories in descending order. An entity should follow the highest category of GAAP applicable for each of its accounting transactions. SFAS No. 162 is effective 60 days following the SEC’s approval of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (“PCAOB”) amendments to Auditing Standards of the PCAOB Section 411, “The Meaning of Present Fairly in Conformity with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles” (“AU Section 411”). The adoption of SFAS No. 162 will not have a material effect on our consolidated financial statements.

In June 2008, the FASB ratified the consensus reached by the Emerging Issues Task Force (“EITF”) with respect to EITF Issue No. 07-5, “Determining Whether an Instrument (or Embedded Feature) Is Indexed to an Entity’s Own Stock” (“EITF No. 07-5”). The consensus clarifies the determination of whether an instrument (or an embedded feature) is indexed to an entity’s own stock, which would qualify as a scope exception under SFAS No. 133, “Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities.” EITF No. 07-5 is effective for interim periods and years beginning after December 15, 2008, which is the Company’s year beginning on January 1, 2009. Early adoption for an existing instrument is not permitted. We are currently evaluating the impact that EITF No. 07-5 will have on our consolidated financial statements.

In November 2008, the FASB ratified the consensus reached by the EITF with respect to EITF Issue No. 08-6, “Equity Method Investment Accounting Considerations” (“EITF No. 08-6”). The consensus requires a company that accounts for an interest it holds in another company under the equity-method to recognize its proportionate share of impairment charges recognized by the equity-method company it holds, adjusted for basis differences, if any, between such equity method company’s carrying amount for the impaired assets and the cost allocated to such assets by the holder. The holder is also required to perform an overall other-than-temporary impairment test of its equity method holdings in accordance with APB Opinion 18, “The Equity Method of Accounting for Investments in Common Stock.” EITF No. 08-6 is effective for interim periods and years beginning after December 15, 2008, which is the Company’s year beginning on January 1, 2009. Earlier application is prohibited. We are currently evaluating the impact that this EITF will have on our consolidated financial statements.

ITEM 7A. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

We are exposed to equity price risks on the marketable portion of our equity securities. Our public holdings at December 31, 2008 include equity positions in companies in sectors that have experienced significant historical volatility in their stock prices. A 20% adverse change in equity prices, based on a sensitivity analysis of our public holdings as of December 31, 2008, would result in approximately a $9 million decrease in the fair value of our public holdings. Through December 31, 2008, the Company has entered into cashless collar contracts with various expiration dates in 2010 to hedge 1,625,000 shares of its total holdings of 2,187,060 shares of Blackboard common stock at weighted average minimum and maximum prices per share of $24.27 and $56.35, respectively. Each of these contracts limits the Company's exposure to price declines in the underlying equity securities. Additionally, each of these contracts limits the Company's maximum benefits from price increases in the underlying equity securities.

Cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and accounts payable are carried at cost, which approximates fair value due to the short-term maturity of these instruments. Marketable securities are carried at fair value.

We have historically had very low exposure to changes in foreign currency exchange rates and, as such, have not used derivative financial instruments to manage foreign currency fluctuation risk.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The Board of Directors and Stockholders
Internet Capital Group, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Internet Capital Group, Inc. and subsidiaries (the Company) as of December 31, 2008 and 2007, and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' equity, comprehensive income (loss) and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2008. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Internet Capital Group, Inc. and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2008 and 2007, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2008, in conformity with U. S. generally accepted accounting principles.

We also have audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), Internet Capital Group, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2008, based on criteria established in Internal Control—Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO), and our report dated March 16, 2009 expressed an unqualified opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

Principles of Accounting for Ownership Interests in Partner Companies

The various interests that the Company acquires in its partner companies are accounted for under three methods: the consolidation method, the equity method and the cost method. The applicable accounting method is generally determined based on the Company's voting interest in a partner company.

Consolidation. Partner companies in which the Company directly or indirectly owns more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities, and for which other stockholders do not possess the right to affect significant management decisions, are accounted for under the consolidation method of accounting. Under this method, a partner company's balance sheet and results of operations are reflected within the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements, and all significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated. Participation of other partner company stockholders in the net assets and in the earnings or losses of a consolidated is reflected in the caption "Minority interest" in the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheet and Statements of Operations. Minority interest adjusts the Company's consolidated results of operations to reflect only the Company's share of the earnings or losses of the consolidated partner company. The results of operations and cash flows of a consolidated partner company are included through the latest interim period in which the Company owned a greater than 50% direct or indirect voting interest for the entire interim period or otherwise exercised control over the partner company. Upon a reduction of the Company's ownership interest to below 50% of the outstanding voting securities, the accounting method is adjusted to the equity or cost method of accounting, as appropriate, for subsequent periods.

Equity Method. Partner companies that are not consolidated, but over which the Company exercises significant influence, are accounted for under the equity method of accounting. Whether or not the Company exercises significant influence with respect to a partner company depends on an evaluation of several factors, including, among others, representation on the partner company's board of directors and ownership level, which is generally a 20% to 50% interest in the voting securities of the partner company, including voting rights associated with the Company's holdings in common stock, preferred stock and other convertible instruments in the partner company. Under the equity method of accounting, a partner company's accounts are not reflected within the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets and Statements of Operations. The Company's share of the earnings or losses of the partner company, as well as any adjustments from prior period finalizations of equity income/losses, are reflected in the caption "Equity loss" in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. In 2008, those prior period finalizations are not material. The carrying value of equity method partner companies is reflected in "Ownership interests in partner companies" in the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets.

When the Company's interest in an equity method partner company is reduced to zero, no further losses are recorded in the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements, unless the Company guaranteed obligations of the partner company or has committed to additional funding. When the partner company subsequently reports income, the Company will not record its share of such income until it equals the amount of its share of losses not previously recognized.

Cost Method. Partner companies not accounted for under the consolidation or the equity method of accounting are accounted for under the cost method of accounting. Under this method, the Company's share of the earnings or losses of such companies is not included in the Consolidated Balance Sheet or Consolidated Statements of Operations. However, cost method partner company impairment charges are recognized in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. If circumstances suggest that the value of the partner company has subsequently recovered, such recovery is not recorded.

When a cost method partner company qualifies for use of the equity method, the Company's interest is adjusted retroactively for its share of the past results of its operations. Therefore, prior losses could significantly decrease the Company's carrying value balance at that time.

The Company records its ownership interest in equity securities of partner companies accounted for under the cost method at cost, unless these securities have readily determinable fair values based on quoted market prices, in which case these interests are valued at fair value and classified as marketable securities or some other classification in accordance with SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities."

Ownership Interests in partner companies, Goodwill and Intangibles, net

The Company is required to test intangible assets and goodwill for impairment in accordance with the provisions of SFAS No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets," and SFAS No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment of Disposal of Long-Lived Assets." The Company follows the guidance in APB No. 18, "The Equity Method of Accounting for Investments in Common Stock," to evaluate its equity method ownership interests in Partner Companies for impairment.

The Company continually evaluates the carrying value of its ownership interests in each of its partner companies for possible impairment based on achievement of business plan objectives and milestones, the value of each ownership interest in the partner company relative to carrying value, the financial condition and prospects of the partner company, and other relevant factors. The business plan objectives and milestones the Company considers include, among others, those related to financial performance, such as achievement of planned financial results or completion of capital raising activities, and those that are not primarily financial in nature, such as obtaining key business partnerships or the hiring of key employees. Impairment charges are determined by comparing the estimated fair value of a partner company with its carrying value. Fair value is determined by estimating the cash flows related to the asset, including estimated proceeds on disposition.

The Company's policy is to perform ongoing business reviews for all partner companies and goodwill impairment tests annually in the fourth quarter of each fiscal year. The Company performed its annual impairment test during the fourth quarter of fiscal 2008 and concluded that the carrying value of certain of its ownership interest in partner companies and goodwill was impaired. As a result, the Company recorded total impairments of $23.2 million during the fourth quarter of fiscal 2008. Of this amount, $8.3 million was related to the impairment of goodwill, while the remaining $14.9 million was a reduction to our basis in certain partner companies. At December 31, 2008, the Company's carrying value of its ownership interests in partner companies totaled $83.8 million, goodwill totaled $26.7 million and intangibles, net totaled $0.9 million. See Note 3 for additional information regarding our ownership interest in partner companies, goodwill and intangibles, net and related impairment.

Revenue Recognition

During 2008, the Company's revenues were primarily attributable to ICG Commerce and Vcommerce. During 2007, the Company's revenues were primarily attributable to ICG Commerce. During 2006, the Company's revenues were primarily attributable to ICG Commerce and StarCite.

ICG Commerce generates revenue from sourcing consulting and procurement outsourcing services. Procurement outsourcing services generally include a combination of services and technology designed to help companies achieve unit cost savings and process efficiencies. ICG Commerce earns fees for implementation services, start-up services, content and category management (which may include sourcing as described below), hosting fees, buying center management fees, and certain transaction fees. ICG Commerce estimates the total contract value under these arrangements and generally recognizes revenue under these arrangements, excluding transaction fees and gain-share fees, on a straight-line basis over the term of the contract, which approximates the life of the customer relationship. Additionally, performance based/gain share fees are deferred until the contingency is achieved or it is determined from existing data and past experience that the savings will be achieved, and then generally recognized on a straight-line basis over the life of the contract, which approximates the life of the customer relationship. Sourcing programs are engagements in which ICG Commerce negotiates prices from certain suppliers on behalf of its customers in certain categories in which ICG Commerce has sourcing expertise. Under sourcing programs, either the customer pays a fixed-fee or a gain-share amount for use of the negotiated rates. In fixed-fee sourcing arrangements, revenue is recognized on a proportional performance basis, provided that there is no uncertainty as to ICG Commerce's ability to fulfill its obligations under the contract or other services that are to be rendered under the contract. Gain-share sourcing revenue is recognized when earned.

Vcommerce generates revenue from service fees earned by it in connection with the development and operation of its clients' e-commerce businesses. Service fee revenue primarily consists of transaction fees, implementation fees and professional services, as well as access and maintenance fees. Vcommerce recognizes revenue from services provided when the following revenue recognition criteria are met: persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, services have been rendered, the fee is fixed or determinable and collectibility is reasonably assured. Vcommerce recognizes revenue over the term of the customer contract, and transaction fees and professional services, implementation, access and maintenance fees as services are rendered.

StarCite was a consolidated company through December 29, 2006. StarCite's revenues were primarily derived from hotel media marketing packages, attendee management software, site selection and various enabling technologies. Marketing packages, attendee management software and enabling technology revenues were recognized over the life of the contract, which approximated the life of the customer relationship and typically ranged from one to three years. Site selection revenues were recognized at the time the meeting occurred, when no significant performance obligation remained.

Deferred Revenue

Deferred revenue consists primarily of payments received in advance of revenue being earned under procurement sourcing arrangements and future implementation, professional services and transaction fees.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from these estimates. These estimates include evaluation of the Company's holdings in its partner companies, holdings in marketable securities, asset impairment, revenue recognition, income taxes and commitments and contingencies. These estimates and assumptions are based on management's best judgments. Management evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using historical experience and other factors, including the current economic environment, which management believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Management adjusts such estimates and assumptions when facts and circumstances dictate. Illiquid credit markets, volatile equity markets and reductions in information technology spending have combined to increase the uncertainty inherent in such estimates and assumptions. It is reasonably possible that the Company's accounting estimates with respect to the useful life of intangible assets and the ultimate recoverability of ownership interests in partner companies and goodwill could change in the near term and that the effect of such changes on the financial statements could be material. The Company believes the recorded amount of ownership interests in partner companies and goodwill is not impaired at December 31, 2008.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid instruments with an original maturity of 90 days or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents at December 31, 2008 and 2007 were invested principally in money market accounts.

Restricted Cash

The Company considers cash that is legally restricted and cash that is held as a compensating balance for letter of credit arrangements as restricted cash. At December 31, 2008 and 2007, restricted cash was held primarily in money market accounts. The Company had no long-term restricted cash at December 31, 2008. Long-term restricted cash of $0.2 million at December 31, 2007 is included in "Other, net" assets on the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Marketable Securities

Marketable securities are reported at fair value, based on quoted market prices, with the net unrealized gain or loss reported as a component of "Accumulated other comprehensive income" in stockholders' equity.

Financial Instruments

Cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and accounts payable are carried at cost, which approximates fair value due to the short-term maturity of these instruments. Marketable securities are carried at fair value.

Research and Development

Research and development costs are charged to expense as incurred.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method, whereby deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the estimated future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which the temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

Net Income (Loss) Per Share

Basic net income (loss) per share ("EPS") is computed using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during each period. Diluted EPS includes shares, unless anti-dilutive, that would arise from the exercise of stock options and conversion of other convertible securities and is adjusted, if applicable, for the effect on net income (loss) of such transactions. If a consolidated or equity method partner company has dilutive options or securities outstanding, diluted net income per share is computed by deducting from income (loss) from continuing operations the income attributable to the potential exercise of the dilutive options or securities of the partner company. Because the Company has incurred losses for 2008, the effects of potentially dilutive securities are not included, as they would be anti-dilutive. See Note 17.

Issuances of Stock by Partner Companies

The effects of any changes in the Company's ownership interest resulting from the issuance of equity capital by a partner company accounted for under the consolidation or equity method of accounting are accounted for pursuant to Staff Accounting Bulletin ("SAB") No. 51, "Accounting for the Sales of Stock of a Subsidiary." SAB No. 51 requires the difference between the carrying amount of the Company's investment in the partner company and the underlying net book value of the partner company after the issuance of stock by the partner company be reflected as either a gain or loss in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations if the appropriate recognition criteria has been met or reflected as an equity transaction in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Stockholders' Equity. During the years ended December 31, 2008, 2007 and 2006, all such gains and losses have been recorded in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Stockholders' Equity. See Note 3.

Escrowed Proceeds

When an interest in one of the Company's partner companies is sold, a portion of the sale consideration may be held in escrow primarily to satisfy purchase price adjustments and/or indemnity claims. The Company records escrow arrangements at the time the Company is entitled to the escrow proceeds, the amount is fixed or determinable and realization is assured. At December 31, 2008, the Company has aggregate contingent gains of $9.3 million associated with these outstanding escrows set to lapse at various dates within the next four years, subject to indemnity claims pursuant to the terms of the specific sale agreements. See Note 3.

Concentration of Customer Base and Credit Risk

For the year ended December 31, 2008, two customers of ICG Commerce, The Hertz Corporation and Kimberly-Clark Corporation, each represented approximately 17% of ICG's consolidated revenue. For the year ended December 31, 2007, Kimberly-Clark Corporation and a third customer of ICG Commerce, The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, represented approximately 24% and 10%, respectively, of ICG's consolidated revenue. For the year ended December 31, 2006, The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company represented approximately 10% of the Company's consolidated revenue. Accounts receivable from The Hertz Corporation and Kimberly-Clark Corporation as of December 31, 2008 were $1.3 million and $0.7 million, respectively. Accounts receivable from Kimberly-Clark Corporation and The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company as of December 31, 2007 were $1.4 million and less than $0.1 million, respectively. The accounts receivable balances as of December 31, 2008 for The Hertz Corporation and Kimberly-Clark Corporation include $1.2 million and $0.3 million, respectively, of unbilled accounts receivable. The accounts receivable balance as of December 31, 2007 for Kimberly-Clark Corporation include $1.0 million of unbilled accounts receivable.

Stock Based Compensation

We adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 123 (revised 2004), "Share-Based Payment" ("SFAS 123R") on January 1, 2006, which requires that compensation expense be recognized in the financial statements for all share options and other equity-based arrangements. Under the provisions of SFAS 123R, equity-based compensation cost is measured at the date of grant, based on the fair value of the award, and is recognized over the employee's requisite service period.

2. Significant Accounting Policies — (Continued)

We adopted SFAS 123R using the modified prospective transition method as provided for by the Standard and therefore have not restated prior periods. Under this transition method, the amount of compensation cost recognized in 2007 and 2006 for equity awards includes amortization relating to the remaining unvested portion of equity awards granted prior to January 1, 2006, and amortization related to new equity awards granted on January 1, 2006 and later.

Fair Value Measurements

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 157, "Fair Value Measurements" ("SFAS No. 157"). SFAS No. 157 clarifies the definition of fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value and expands the disclosures on fair value measurements. In February 2008, the FASB issued two final staff positions ("FSP SFAS No. 157-1" and "FSP SFAS No. 157-2") amending SFAS No. 157. FSP SFAS 157-1 amends SFAS 157 to exclude SFAS No. 13, "Accounting for Leases," and its related interpretive accounting pronouncements that address leasing transactions. FSP SFAS 157-2 delays the effective date of SFAS No. 157 until fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2008 for nonfinancial assets and nonfinancial liabilities that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements on a nonrecurring basis. The Company adopted SFAS No. 157 on January 1, 2008, except for the items covered by FSP SFAS 157-2. The Company does not expect the adoption of FSP SFAS 157-2 to have a material effect on the Company's financial statements.

SFAS No. 157 establishes a three-tier fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value as follows:

- Level 1: Observable inputs, such as quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2: Inputs, other than the quoted prices in active markets, that are observable either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3: Unobservable inputs in which there is little or no market data, which require the reporting entity to develop its own assumptions.

The fair value of the Company's financial assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis were as follows (in millions):

	Balance at December 31, 2008	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Cash equivalents (money market accounts)	$ 84.4	$ 84.4	$ —	$ —
Marketable securities (see Note 4)	57.4	57.4	—	—
Hedges of marketable securities (see Note 4)	6.6	—	6.6(a)	—
	$ 148.4	$ 141.8	$ 6.6	$ —

- (a) The Company's counterparty provides the Company with a quarterly statement of the market value of the cashless collar contracts based on model-derived valuations in which all significant inputs are observable or can be derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In February 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 159, “The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities.” Under this Standard, the Company may elect to report cost and equity method partner companies, marketable securities, hedges and certain other items at fair value on a contract-by-contract basis with changes in value reported in earnings. This election is irrevocable. SFAS No. 159 became effective for the Company beginning January 1, 2008. The Company has elected not to apply the fair value option to any of the Company’s current eligible financial assets and liabilities.

In December 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 141 (revised 2007), “Business Combinations” (“SFAS No. 141(R)”). SFAS No. 141(R) amends the principles and requirements for how an acquirer recognizes and measures in its financial statements the identifiable assets acquired, the liabilities assumed, any noncontrolling interest in the acquiree and the goodwill acquired. SFAS No. 141(R) also establishes disclosure requirements to enable the evaluation of the nature and financial effects of the business combination. SFAS No. 141(R) is effective for the Company beginning on January 1, 2009, and the Company will apply SFAS No. 141(R) prospectively to all business combinations subsequent to the effective date. The Company is currently evaluating the impact that the adoption of SFAS No. 141(R) will have on the Company’s Consolidated Financial Statements.

In December 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 160, “Noncontrolling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements—an amendment of Accounting Research Bulletin No. 51” (“SFAS No. 160”). SFAS No. 160 establishes accounting and reporting standards for a noncontrolling interest in a subsidiary and for the deconsolidation of a subsidiary. SFAS No. 160 also establishes disclosure requirements that clarify the distinctions between controlling and noncontrolling interests. SFAS No. 160 requires retroactive adoption of the presentation and disclosure requirements for existing minority interests. All other requirements of SFAS No. 160 shall be applied prospectively. SFAS No. 160 would have an impact on the presentation and disclosure of the noncontrolling interests of any non wholly-owned businesses acquired in the future. SFAS No. 160 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008, which is the Company’s year beginning on January 1, 2009. The Company is currently evaluating the impact that the adoption of SFAS No. 160 will have on the Company’s Consolidated Financial Statements and expects to reclassify $7.1 million of minority interests at December 31, 2008 from a component of liabilities to a component of Stockholders’ Equity.

In March 2008, the FASB issued SFAS No. 161, “Disclosures about Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities—an amendment of SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivatives and Hedging Activities” (“SFAS No. 161”) SFAS No. 161 is intended to improve financial reporting of derivative instruments and hedging activities by requiring enhanced disclosures to enable financial statement users to better understand the effects of derivatives and hedging on an entity’s financial position, financial performance and cash flows. The provisions of SFAS No. 161 are effective for interim periods and years beginning after November 15, 2008, which is the Company’s year beginning on January 1, 2009. The Company is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of SFAS No. 161 will have on the Company’s Consolidated Financial Statements.

In May 2008, the FASB issued SFAS No. 162, “The Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles.” SFAS No. 162 identifies the sources for GAAP in the U.S. and lists the categories in descending order. An entity should follow the highest category of GAAP applicable for each of its accounting transactions. SFAS No. 162 is effective 60 days following the SEC’s approval of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (“PCAOB”) amendments to Auditing Standards of the PCAOB Section 411, “The Meaning of Present Fairly in Conformity with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles” (“AU Section 411”). The adoption of SFAS No. 162 will not have a material effect on the Company’s Consolidated Financial Statements.

In June 2008, the FASB ratified the consensus reached by the Emerging Issues Task Force (“EITF”) with respect to EITF Issue No. 07-5, “Determining Whether an Instrument (or Embedded Feature) Is Indexed to an Entity’s Own Stock” (“EITF No. 07-5”). The consensus clarifies the determination of whether an instrument (or an embedded feature) is indexed to an entity’s own stock, which would qualify as a scope exception under SFAS No. 133, “Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities.” EITF No. 07-5 is effective for interim periods and years beginning after December 15, 2008, which is the Company’s year beginning on January 1, 2009. Early adoption for an existing instrument is not permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact that EITF No. 07-5 will have on the Company’s Consolidated Financial Statements.

In November 2008, the FASB ratified the consensus reached by the EITF with respect to EITF Issue No. 08-6, “Equity Method Investment Accounting Considerations” (“EITF No. 08-6”). The consensus requires a company that accounts for an interest it holds in another company under the equity-method to recognize its proportionate share of impairment charges recognized by the equity-method company it holds, adjusted for basis differences, if any, between such equity method company’s carrying amount for the impaired assets and the cost allocated to such assets by the holder. The holder is also required to perform an overall other-than-temporary impairment test of its equity method holdings in accordance with APB Opinion 18, “The Equity Method of Accounting for Investments in Common Stock.” EITF No. 08-6 is effective for interim periods and years beginning after December 15, 2008, which is the Company’s year beginning on January 1, 2009. Earlier application is prohibited. The Company is currently evaluating the impact that this EITF will have on the Company’s Consolidated Financial Statements.

(2) Includes (ICG voting ownership): Channel Intelligence (41%), Freeborders (32%), GoIndustry (31%), Metastorm (32%), StarCite (26%), Vcommerce (48%) and WhiteFence (35%).

In 2008, the Company increased its ownership interest in Channel Intelligence, ClickEquations, Metastorm and StarCite through the Company's acquisition of outstanding equity securities and/or participation in financing rounds. The total amount of these acquisitions was $24.2 million.

As of December 31, 2008, the Company's carrying value in equity method Partner Companies, in the aggregate, exceeded the Company's share of the net assets of these equity method Partner Companies by approximately $33.6 million. This excess is allocated $25.8 million to goodwill, which is not amortized, and $7.8 million to intangibles, which are generally being amortized over 3 years. Amortation expense associated with these intangibles of $1.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2008 is included in the table below in the line item "Intangible amortization" and is included in "Equity loss" on the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations.

In 2008, ClickEquations, which was previously accounted for under the cost method, became an equity method company due to the Company's participation in a financing round. Prior periods have not been restated to reflect prior equity losses from the original acquisition of an interest in ClickEquations as that acquisition was immaterial.

In 2006, GoIndustry, in connection with a reverse merger, began listing its securities on the AIM market of the London Stock Exchange. During the fourth quarter of 2008, the Company determined that its holdings of 133,832,852 shares of GoIndustry common stock had an other than temporary decline in its value. Accordingly, the Company recorded a $10.2 million impairment charge to reduce the Company's carrying value to GoIndustry's fair market value. Subsequent to December 31, 2008, the value of GoIndustry's common stock has declined. Accordingly, the company will continue to monitor the fair value of GoIndustry and will record further impairment charges in 2009 if the Company determines that a decline in GoIndustry's fair market value is other than temporary.

CreditTrade/Creditex/IntercontinentalExchange Sales

In 2006, CreditTrade completed a merger with a subsidiary of Creditex Group, Inc. ("Creditex"). To date, the Company has received approximately $18.3 million in cash for its ownership interest in CreditTrade, and approximately $1.1 million of additional cash has been placed in escrow to satisfy certain pending indemnification claims under the merger agreement. The Company recorded a gain of $10.2 million in 2006 related to this transaction and a gain of $0.9 million in 2008 related to the release of a portion of the escrow balance; these gains are reflected in "Other income (loss), net" on the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations. The Company will record additional gains to the extent any additional escrowed proceeds are received.

In a separate 2006 transaction, the Company purchased capital stock of Creditex representing an approximate 15% ownership interest in Creditex for approximately $27.7 million. In 2008, Creditex was acquired by IntercontinentalExchange, Inc. ("ICE"). The Company's share of the merger consideration was 737,471 shares of ICE common stock, which, based on the stock's August 29, 2008 closing price, were valued at approximately $64.9 million. At closing, 60,440 of these shares were placed into escrow to satisfy potential indemnification claims. If there are no indemnification claims, most of the shares will be released to the Company eighteen months following the closing date of the transaction, with the remainder to be released four years after closing. The Company recorded a gain of approximately $34.8 million on this transaction. Between August 29, 2008 and December 31, 2008, the Company sold 677,031 shares of ICE common stock for cash proceeds of $60.2 million. The Company recorded a gain on the ICE common stock sales of $0.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2008. The gains on Creditex and ICE are reflected in "Other income (loss), net" on the Company's Consolidated Statement of Operations. In February 2009, the Company received an additional 7,549 shares of ICE common stock in connection with a post-merger closing-related adjustment.

Marketron Sale

In 2007, the Company sold its ownership in Marketron for gross proceeds of $36.7 million, of which approximately $4.8 million was placed in escrow to be released over a three-year period, subject to purchase price adjustment and indemnity claims pursuant to the terms of the related agreement. The Company recorded a gain on the transaction of $8.2 million, which is included in "Other income (loss), net" on the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations. The Company received $1.4 million and $0.6 million of the escrowed amounts in 2008 and 2007, respectively, and recorded gains of $1.4 million and $0.6 million, respectively, which are included in "Other income (loss), net" on the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations for the years ended December 31, 2008 and 2007, respectively.

The remaining $2.8 million in escrow will be recognized as additional gain if and when the amount of the escrow proceeds is fixed or determinable and realization is assured.

Other Sales

During 2008, the Company received $0.4 million of escrow releases in connection with the disposition of eCredit, and recorded a gain of $0.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2008. During 2007 and 2006, the Company sold its ownership interests in various other partner companies in exchange for cash and contingent consideration. The residual gain of $1.0 million in 2007 primarily related to the gains associated with the releases of amounts escrowed in connection with the dispositions of Co-nect, Inc. ("Co-nect") and ComputerJobs. The residual gain of $6.8 million in 2006 primarily related to the gains on the sales of ComputerJobs and eCredit.

Escrow Information

As of December 31, 2008, the Company has outstanding aggregate contingent gains of approximately $4.3 million associated with escrowed proceeds from sales of prior equity method partner companies. Additionally, the Company has outstanding 60,440 shares of ICE common stock, valued at approximately $5.0 million based on the December 31, 2008 closing stock price, being held in escrow related to the sale of Creditex to ICE on August 29, 2008. These escrows primarily relate to sale consideration that was set aside to satisfy potential purchase price adjustments and/or potential indemnity claims. The release of escrowed proceeds, if any, to the Company would result in additional gains at the time the Company is entitled to such proceeds, the amount is fixed or determinable and realization is assured, which is anticipated to occur between June 2009 and August 2012.

Issuances of Stock by Partner Companies

The following table summarizes the impact to the Company's Consolidated Statements of Stockholders' Equity for issuances of stock by partner companies.

Partner Company	Issuance of Stock by Partner Company for:	Year ended December 31,
		2008	2007	2006
GoIndustry	Financing/Acquisition/Merger Transactions (a)	$ (1,344)	$ 4,996	$ 5,393

Other	Restricted Stock/Stock Option Activity	715	89	(1,539)

- (a) In 2008, 2007 and 2006, GoIndustry issued equity in conjunction with financing rounds, an acquisition transaction and a reverse merger. As a result of these transactions, the Company's ownership in GoIndustry was reduced from 35% in 2006 to 31% in 2007 to 29% in 2008. In conjunction with the financing in 2008, the Company purchased an additional 52,690,950 shares of GoIndustry for approximately $10.5 million. At December 31, 2008, the Company owns 133,832,852 shares of GoIndustry, or approximately 29% of the outstanding shares.
- (b) On December 29, 2006, StarCite merged with OnVantage, Inc. Following completion of the transaction, the Company's ownership interest was below 50% in the combined entity and is accounted for under the equity method of accounting. Based on the estimated fair value of the combined entity, the Company recorded its share of the difference between the fair value and book value of StarCite deemed sold in relation to StarCite's merger with OnVantage.
- (c) In 2007, Metastorm issued equity in conjunction with a financing and an acquisition transaction. As a result of these transactions, the company's ownership interest in Metastorm was reduced from 41% to 32%.

4. Marketable Securities and Related Derivatives

Marketable securities represent the Company's holdings in equity securities. The cost, unrealized holding gains/(losses), and fair value of marketable securities at December 31, 2008 and December 31, 2007 were as follows:

	Common Shares Owned	Cost (in thousands, except shares)	Unrealized Holding Gains/(Losses)	Fair Value
December 31, 2008
Blackboard	2,187,060	$ 3,162	$ 54,205	$ 57,367
		$ 3,162	$ 54,205	$ 57,367
December 31, 2007
Blackboard	2,187,060	$ 3,162	$ 84,867	$ 88,029
		$ 3,162	$ 84,867	$ 88,029

The tables above do not reflect the Company's holdings of ICE common stock that were both obtained and sold during 2008. See Note 3.

The amount reflected as the Company's cost for Blackboard includes the carrying value on the date Blackboard converted to marketable securities and the value of Blackboard warrants exercised.

The Company manages its exposure to and benefits from price fluctuations of Blackboard common stock by using derivatives securities or hedges. Although these instruments are derivative securities, their economic risks are similar to, and managed on the same basis as, risks of the other equity instruments the Company holds. Through December 31, 2008, the Company has entered into cashless collar contracts with various expiration dates in 2010 to hedge 1,625,000 shares of its total holdings of 2,187,060 shares of Blackboard common stock at weighted average minimum and maximum prices per share of $24.27 and $56.35, respectively. These instruments are marked to market through earnings. In future quarters, the mark-to-market impact will generally be an expense if Blackboard's stock price rises or income if Blackboard's stock price declines. If the Company holds these hedges through their maturity dates and Blackboard's stock price remains within the weighted average minimum and maximum prices per share, the value of the hedges will be zero at maturity. The fair value of these instruments was an asset of $6.5 million at December 31, 2008, which is included in "Hedges of marketable securities" on the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets. If the price of Blackboard's stock price increases, it will negatively impact the value of the hedge asset. The mark-to-market impact to earnings of these instruments was income of $10.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2008, based on Blackboard's closing stock price of $26.23 at the end of the year, which is reflected in "Other income (loss), net" on the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Loan and Credit Agreements

On September 30, 2002, the Company entered into a loan agreement with Comerica Bank (the "Loan Agreement") to provide for the issuance of letters of credit up to $20 million, subject to a cash-secured borrowing base as defined by the Loan Agreement. The Loan Agreement was reduced to $10 million in 2004. In December 2008, the Loan Agreement was extended to December 12, 2009. Issuance fees of 0.50% per annum of the face amount of each letter of credit will be paid to Comerica Bank subsequent to issuance. The Loan Agreement also is subject to a 0.25% per annum unused commitment fee payable to the bank quarterly. No amounts were outstanding at December 31, 2008 or 2007.

On May 8, 2008, the Company entered into a series of loan agreements with Credit Suisse Capital LLC. Pursuant to these agreements, the Company may, from time to time, borrow funds secured by the cashless collar contracts that the Company previously entered into with respect to 1,625,000 of its shares of Blackboard common stock. The loans bear interest, which is payable quarterly in arrears, at the three-month U.S. dollar LIBOR rate, computed on the basis of a 30-day month and a 360-day year. This interest rate resets on the first day of each calendar quarter. The maturity of each of the loans corresponds with the expiration of the underlying cashless collar contract. Accordingly, the maturity dates of the loans range from March 15, 2010 to October 15, 2010. The maximum borrowing capacity under each of the loan agreements equals the present value of the minimum value of the underlying cashless collar contract, computed using the three month U. S. dollar LIBOR rate. The aggregate maximum borrowing capacity under the loan agreements is approximately $39 million as of December 31, 2008. The Company has not drawn any amounts under the loan agreements to date.

On August 29, 2008, ICG Commerce and a number of its wholly-owned subsidiaries entered into a loan agreement with PNC Bank, pursuant to which ICG Commerce and such subsidiaries may borrow up to $10 million under a revolving line of credit. The line of credit matures on December 31, 2009 and is secured by the assets of the borrowing companies. Interest on any outstanding amounts is computed at a rate to be selected by ICG Commerce at the end of each interest period from the following: (1) a one, two, three or six-month eurodollar LIBOR rate plus either 175 or 200 basis points, depending on the then-current debt-to-EBITDA ratio of the borrowing companies, and (2) PNC Bank's prime rate minus either 100 or 75 basis points, depending on the then-current debt-to-EBITDA ratio of the borrowing companies. The loan agreement also provides for the issuance by the bank of letters of credit, subject to specified fees and other terms. The loan agreement is subject to a 0.25% per annum unused commitment fee that is payable to the bank quarterly. As of December 31, 2008, ICG Commerce was able to borrow up to the maximum $10 million with interest rates of 3.175%-4.25%. There were no amounts outstanding under the loan agreement at December 31, 2008.

7. Discontinued Operations — (Continued)

In accordance with SFAS No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets," these partner companies have been treated as discontinued operations. Accordingly, the operating results of these discontinued operations have been presented separately from continuing operations and include the gains or losses recognized on disposition in the line item "Income (loss) on discontinued operations" in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations.

8. Segment Information

The Company's reportable segments using the "management approach" under SFAS No. 131, "Disclosure About Segments of a Business Enterprise and Related Information," consist of two reporting segments, the "core" segment and the "other holdings" segment. Each segment includes the results of the Company's Consolidated Partner Companies and records the Company's share of earnings and losses of Partner Companies accounted for under the equity method of accounting and captures the Company's basis in the assets of all of its partner companies. Marketable securities are considered "corporate" assets whereas, prior to becoming marketable securities, the Partner Company to which they relate would have been included in the core or other holdings category.

The core reporting segment includes those partner companies in which the Company's management takes a very active role in providing strategic direction and management assistance. The other holdings reporting segment includes holdings in companies over which, in general, we have less influence due to the fact that they are public or we have a relatively small ownership stake.

Approximately 13% of the Company's consolidated revenues for the year ended December 31, 2008 relate to sales generated in the United Kingdom. The remaining consolidated revenues for the year ended December 31, 2008 primarily relate to sales generated in the United States. As of December 31, 2008, 2007 and 2006, the Company's assets were located primarily in the United States.

Stockholder Rights Plan

During 2000, the Company enacted a stockholder rights plan. Under the stockholder rights plan, preferred stock purchase rights were distributed as a dividend at the rate of one right for each share of Common Stock outstanding as of the close of business on December 6, 2000, and one right per share has been issued in connection with shares issued subsequent to such date. Each right entitles the holder to purchase from the Company one ten-thousandth of a share of series A junior participating preferred stock of the Company at an exercise price of $100 per right. The rights attached to the Company's Common Stock are not currently exercisable. The rights become exercisable and will separate from the Common Stock upon the earlier to occur of (i) ten calendar days after a person or group acquires, or announces the intent to acquire, beneficial ownership of 15% or more of the Company's Common Stock, or (ii) ten business days (or a later date following such announcement if determined by the Board of Directors of the Company in accordance with the plan) after the announcement of a tender offer or an exchange offer to acquire 15% or more of the Company's outstanding Common Stock.

The rights are redeemable for $0.0001 per right at the option of the Company's Board of Directors at any time prior to the close of business on the tenth business day after the announcement of a stock acquisition event described above. If not redeemed, the rights will expire on November 22, 2010. Prior to the date upon which the rights would become exercisable under the plan, the Company's outstanding stock certificates will represent both the shares of Common Stock and the rights will trade only with the shares of Common Stock.

Generally, if the rights become exercisable, then each stockholder other than the acquirer is entitled to purchase, for the exercise price, that number of shares of Common Stock that, at the time of the transaction, will have a market value of three times the exercise price of the rights. In addition, if, after the rights become exercisable, the Company is acquired in a merger or other business combination, or 50% or more of its assets or earning power are sold, each right will entitle the holder to purchase, at the exercise price of the rights, that number of shares of Common Stock of the acquiring company that, at the time of the transaction, will have a market value of three times the exercise price of the rights.

11. Stock Option Plans

As of December 31, 2008, incentive or non-qualified stock options may be granted to Company employees, directors and consultants under the 2005 Omnibus Equity Compensation Plan (the "2005 Equity Plan"), the 1999 Equity Compensation Plan (the "1999 Plan") or the LGO Corporation 2001 Equity Compensation Plan (f/k/a Logistics.com 2001 Equity Compensation Plan) (the "LGO Plan" and, together with the 2005 Equity Plan and the 1999 Plan, the "Plans"). Generally, the grants vest over a one to five year period and expire eight to ten years after the grant date. At December 31, 2008, the Company had 240,211 shares of Common Stock reserved under the Plans for possible future issuance. Most partner companies also maintain their own stock option plans.

Total equity-based compensation for the years ended December 31, 2008, 2007 and 2006 was $6.8 million, $7.2 million and $7.7 million, respectively. Equity-based compensation for these periods is included primarily in "Selling, General and Administrative" on the Company's consolidated Statements of Operations. Not included in table below is the expense associated with quarterly Deferred Stock Unit grants to non-management directors in lieu of cash for service. See the subsection entitled "Deferred Stock Units ("DSUs") below in this Note 11.

Stock Appreciation Rights ("SARs") and Stock Options Fair Value Assumptions

The following assumptions were used to determine the fair value of stock options and SARs granted to employees by the Company for the three years ended December 31, 2008, 2007 and 2006:

	2008	2007	2006
Expected volatility	60%	60%	60%
Average expected option life	6.25 years	6.25 years	6.25 years
Risk-free interest rate	3.08%	3.51-5.10%	4.55-5.10%
Dividend yield	0.0%	0.0%	0.0%

The Company estimates the grant date fair value of SARs and stock options using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model, which requires the input of highly subjective assumptions. These assumptions include estimating the expected life of the award and the estimated volatility of our stock price over the expected term. Expected volatility is based on historical volatility of our Common Stock over the period commensurate with the expected term of the stock options. The expected term calculation for stock options granted is based on the "simplified" method described in SAB No. 107, "Share-Based Payment." The risk-free interest rate is based on the U. S. Treasury yield in effect at the time of grant for an instrument with a maturity that is commensurate with the expected term of the options. Changes in these assumptions as well as a change in the estimated forfeitures of SARs and stock option awards can materially affect the amount of equity-based compensation recognized in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations. Changes in the derived requisite service period can materially affect the amount of equity-based compensation recognized in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations.

SARs

In 2006, 2007 and 2008, the Company issued stock appreciation rights SARs to certain employees. Prior to February 28, 2007, the Company granted SARs at a base price equal to the fair market value of its common stock on the grant date, as determined by the most recent closing share price of the Company's Common Stock prior to the Board of Directors meeting at which the grant was made, as reported on The Nasdaq Stock Market. On February 28, 2007, the Company amended the definition of fair market value in its equity compensation plans to provide that fair market value would be determined for future grants by reference to the closing price of the Company's Common Stock on the date of grant (or the closing price of the next trading day if there are no trades in the Company's stock on the date of grant). Each SAR represents the right of the holder to receive, upon exercise of the SAR, shares of Common Stock equal to the amount by which the fair market value of a share of common stock on the date of exercise of the SAR exceeds the base price of the SAR. The SARs primarily vest over four years and were subject to variable accounting from their grant date in 2005 through the Company's adoption of SFAS No. 123R on January 1, 2006.

Changes in SARs for the year ended December 31, 2008 were as follows:

Also in 2006, 2007 and 2008, the Company issued quarterly compensation payments to each non-management director for his service on the Board and its committees under the Director Plan. The director had the right to elect to receive such payments in whole or in part in the form of DSUs in lieu of cash under the Internet Capital Group, Inc. Director Deferred Stock Unit Program. Through 2007, if directors elected to receive DSUs in conjunction with the quarterly compensation payments, the directors were entitled to the right to receive the number of shares of Common Stock of the Company equal to the fees earned by the director divided by 75% of the fair market value of a share of the Company’s Common Stock as of the date on which the fees would have been paid. Beginning in 2008, the number of shares the directors received was based on their fees earned and 100% of the fair market value of a share of the Company’s common stock as of the date on which the fees would have been paid. The Company recorded expense when these DSUs were issued as they are immediately vested on the grant date.

As of December 31, 2008, the Company had committed to fund approximately $1.4 million to GoIndustry for a debt financing round that occurred in January.

Some of the Company's partner companies are not presumed by the SEC to be controlled by the Company. Increases in the value of the Company's interests in non-controlled partner companies and changes in income or loss and revenue attributable to them could result in the Company's inability to comply with the order exempting it from registering under the Investment Company Act unless it takes action to come into compliance with the order. The Company believes it can take actions to maintain compliance with its exemptive order that will not adversely affect its operations or stockholder value.

ITEM 9A. Controls and Procedures

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

We carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of management, including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Exchange Act) as of the end of the period covered in this Report. Based upon that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that, as of the end of the period covered in this Report, our disclosure controls and procedures have been designed and are being operated in a manner that provides reasonable assurance that information required to be included in the Company's periodic SEC reports is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the relevant SEC rules and forms.

Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Exchange Act). The Company's internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The Company's internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (i) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company, (ii) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, (iii) provide reasonable assurance that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the Company, and (iv) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

The management of Internet Capital Group, Inc. evaluated the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2008. In making this assessment, it used the criteria set forth by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO) in Internal Control-Integrated Framework. Management's assessment included an evaluation of the design of its internal control over financial reporting and testing of the operational effectiveness of its internal control over financial reporting. Management reviewed the results of its assessment with the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors. Based on this assessment, as of December 31, 2008, the company's internal control over financial reporting was effective based on those criteria.

The Company's independent registered public accounting firm, KPMG LLP, has audited the Company's internal control over financial reporting. KPMG LLP's report on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting appears below.

There have been no changes in internal control over financial reporting during the period covered by this Report that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

Inherent Limitations on Effectiveness of Controls

The design of any system of control is based upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated objectives under all future events, no matter how remote, that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may not deteriorate. Because of their inherent limitations, systems of control may not prevent or detect all misstatements. Accordingly, even effective systems of control can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving their control objectives.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Board of Directors and Stockholders
Internet Capital Group, Inc.:

We have audited Internet Capital Group, Inc. and subsidiaries (the Company) internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2008, based on criteria established in Internal Control—Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO). Internet Capital Group, Inc.'s management is responsible for maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting and for its assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting, included in the accompanying Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal control over financial reporting based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether effective internal control over financial reporting was maintained in all material respects. Our audit included obtaining an understanding of internal control over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control, based on the assessed risk. Our audit also included performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

A company's internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, Internet Capital Group, Inc. and subsidiaries maintained, in all material respects, effective internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2008, based on criteria established in Internal Control—Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO).

We also have audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the consolidated balance sheets of Internet Capital Group, Inc. and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2008 and 2007, and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' equity, comprehensive income (loss) and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2008, and our report dated March 16, 2009 expressed an unqualified opinion on those consolidated financial statements.
